Ehud, Gary,

I want to let you know that we were approached by EMC Ventures regarding our next financing round. EMC Ventures is making strategic investments on behalf of EMC, RSA and VMware.

I see this as a great opportunity for GuardiCore, as VMware is the industry leader in data center virtualization as well as SDN. VMware's total market share in data center virtualization is about 75%, with a larger portion of the paying customers.

An EMC/VMware investment in this stage can accelerate Guardicore's market penetration and time to revenues.

I want to give you a heads up - our discussion with EMC is still at an early stage.

Thanks,
Pavel
